2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983 and 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff TYREEK TAYLOR is twenty-one year old African American man legally residing in Brooklyn, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On June 23, 2010, at approximately 10:00 p.m., plaintiff TYREEK TAYLOR was a lawful pedestrian on Stanley Avenue, between Schenck Avenue and Ashford Avenue, in Brooklyn, New York.

13. At the aforesaid time and place, the defendant police officers illegally stopped, detained, and searched plaintiff, despite lacking any legal justification for said conduct.

14. When the defendants searched inside plaintiff's pockets by placing their hands inside plaintiff's pockets, plaintiff stated in sum and substance, this isn't a pat frisk.

15. The defendant officers responded, in sum and substance, so you're a lawyer.

16. When plaintiff TAYLOR replied, in sum and substance, no, I'm not a lawyer, but I can get one, the defendant officers stated in sum and substance, let's take him in if he wants to be a wise guy.

17. Notwithstanding the fact that the defendant officers did not recover any contraband from plaintiff, the defendants arrested plaintiff, handcuffed his wrists, and transported him to the 75th NYPD precinct.

18. Plaintiff was imprisoned plaintiff until June 24, 2010, when he was arraigned on false charges filed under docket number 2010KN050462; said charges having been filed based on the false statements of the defendant officers.

19. The defendants initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to cover up the above mentioned abuse of authority.

20. On August 24, 2010, the above mentioned criminal docket was adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, and immediately dismissed and sealed in Kings County Criminal Court.

21. Defendant police officer JOHN or JANE DOE 1 supervised defendants JOHN and JANE DOE 2 through 10, and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise presided over the defendant officers' arrest of plaintiff.

22. The defendant police officers JOHN and JANE DOE 2 through 10 either participated in or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

23. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

24. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affair Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK's Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers are insufficiently trained on when to stop, detain, arrest, and search individuals.

25. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

26. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

27. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff TYREEK TAYLOR sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
